SPRING

'73

Prom '73

It was exciting from the beginning - boy gets the courage to ask girl . . . girl gets courage to accept. Result? An evening of fun and excitement.

Graduation '73

This time of year brings tears, excitement, and other mixed emotions. It's the last time you walk together as a class and the first time you walk alone into your own way of life.

Tennis Team Rebuilds

Remember the long afternoons playing tennis? The laps around the parking lot for Mr. McQueen and the many trips to the store for a nice cold drink?

Last year's tennis team, under the direction of Mr. McQueen, had a record of 4 wins, 5 losses, and 1 tie score. With only three seniors on the squad, the team was building for the future.

Tigers Enjoy Win Over Rocks

Last year's baseball season was highlighted by the Tigers' victory over arch-rival St. Stanislaus. This year's team under the direction of Coach Cecil Powell hopes to improve last season's win-loss record.

Boy's and Girl's Track Team Has Good Year

Last year's track team under the direction of Coach Bradley and Coach Loicana had a successful season, placing first in the district competition and having three members place in state competition.

Sport's Banquet Honors Outstanding Athletes

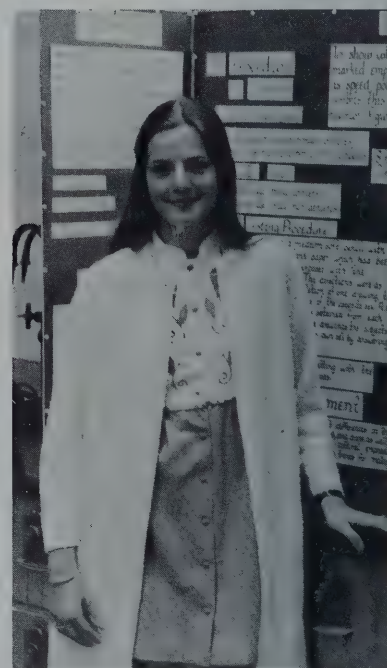

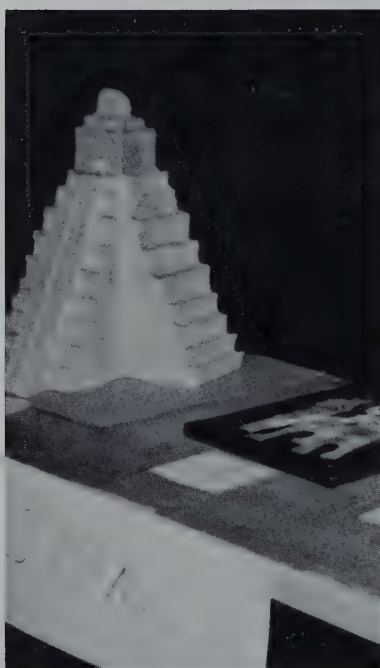

Last spring's sports banquet honored outstanding athletes in such sports as football, basketball, tennis, track, and baseball.

Athletes were awarded trophies for their above-average ability in the practice of these sports.

Spring Brings Class Projects

Projects are full of excitement and wonder. A person wonders if he will ever finish all of them in time, and he wonders what in the world he will ever do. But after all the frustrations, making, and remaking, people manage to originate such great projects as are pictured on this page.

Spring is a season of paradoxes - a time for play, yet, a time for work; a time for laughter, yet a time for tears. For some it is an end, for others it is a beginning.

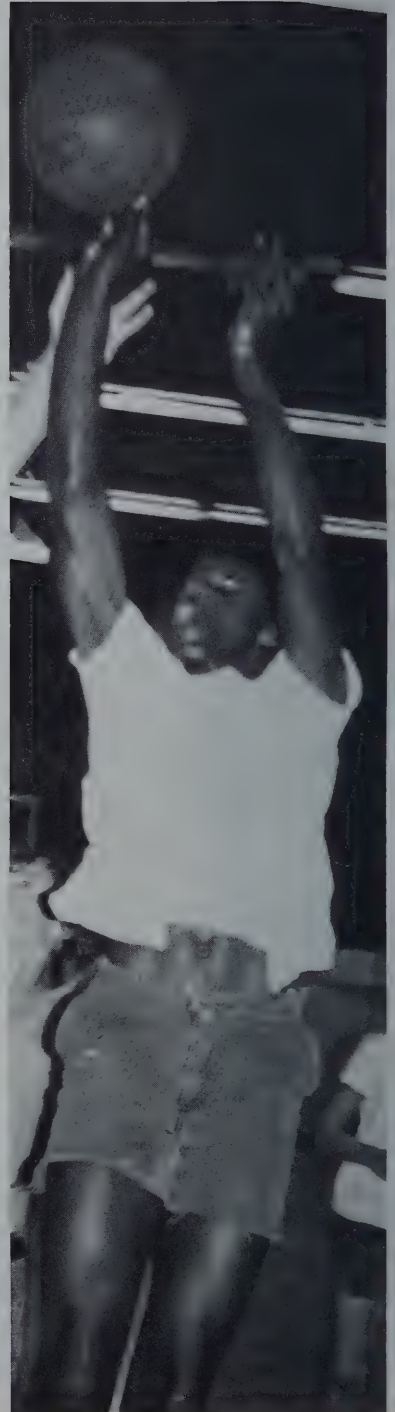

SUMMER

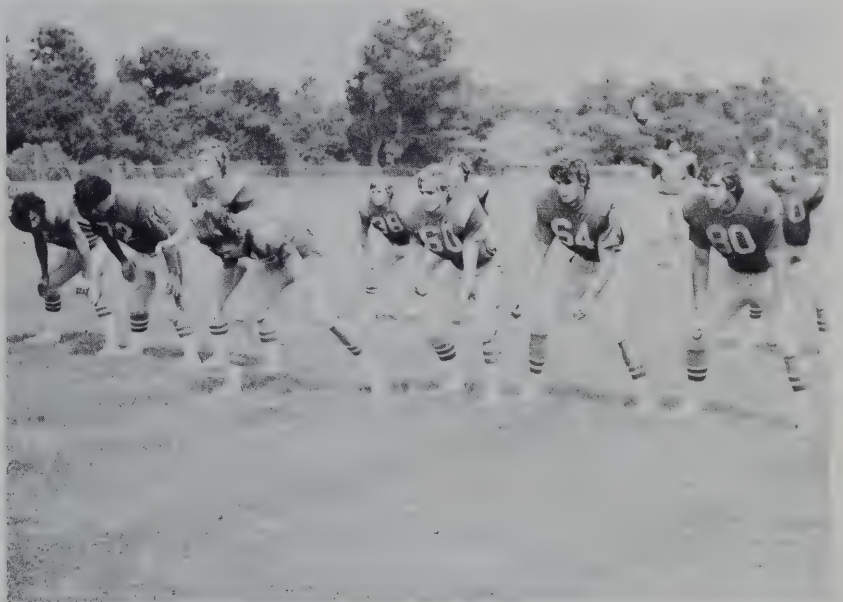

'73

Summer Is a Season for Practice

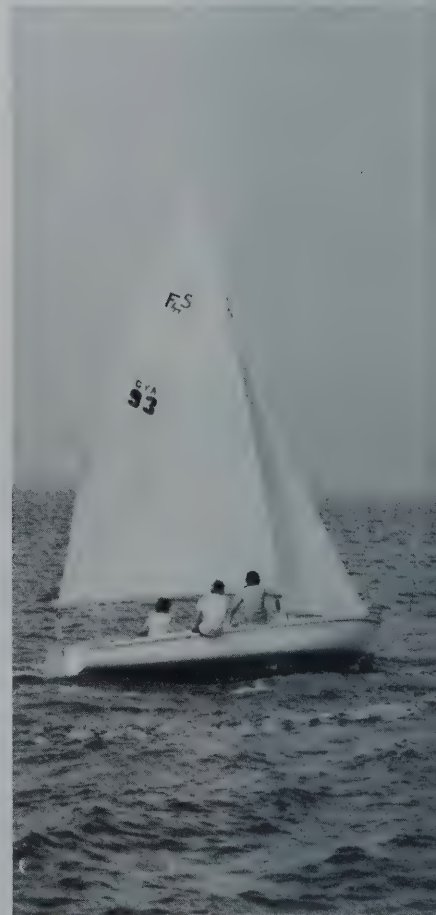

A time for hard work and sweat . . .
A time for grunts and groans . . .
A time to get ready for the coming year.

Summer Is a Season for Play . . .

From playing on the beach,
Riding bikes,
Sailboating . . .

. . . To fishing,
eating snowballs,
watching seagulls.

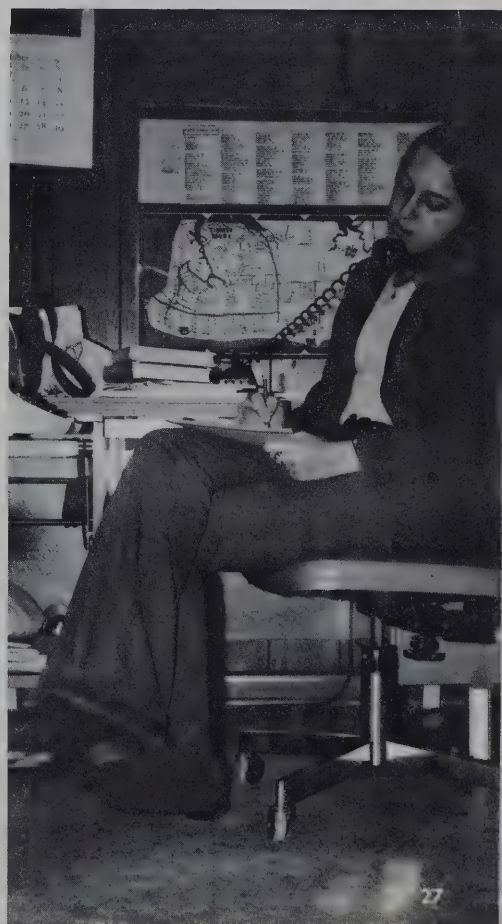

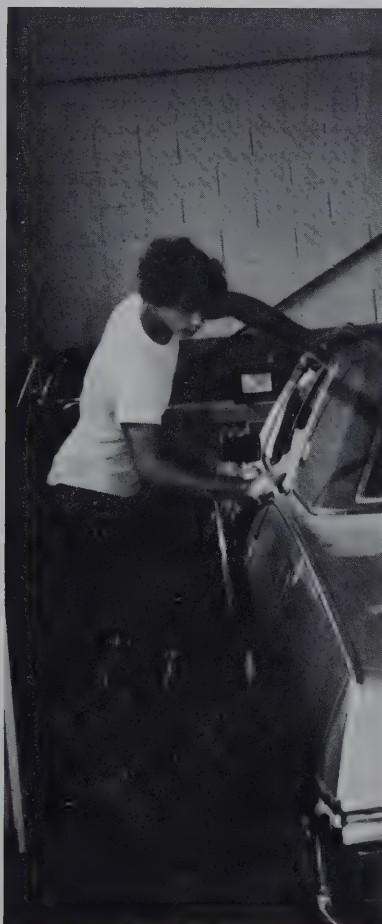

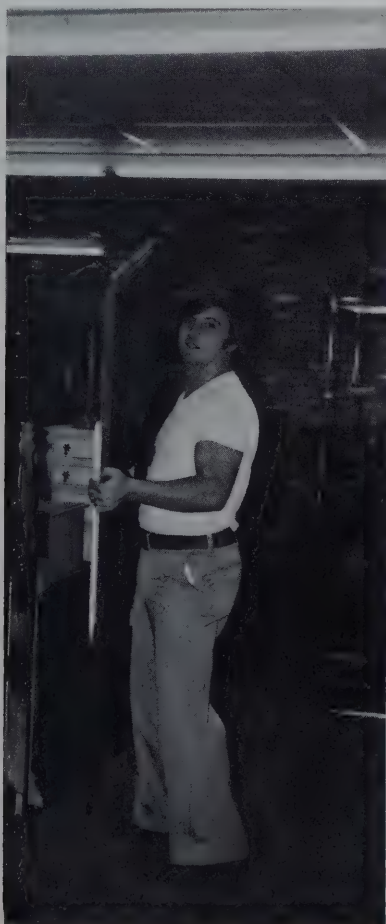

Summer Is a Season for Work . . .

From cutting grass,
selling snowballs,
selling pastries . . .

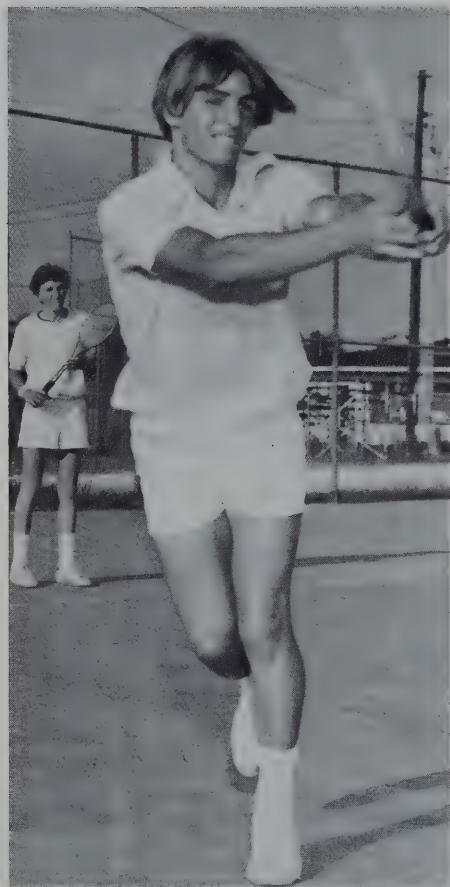

. . . To struggling
through summer school,
lifting furniture,
washing cars,
or answering phones.

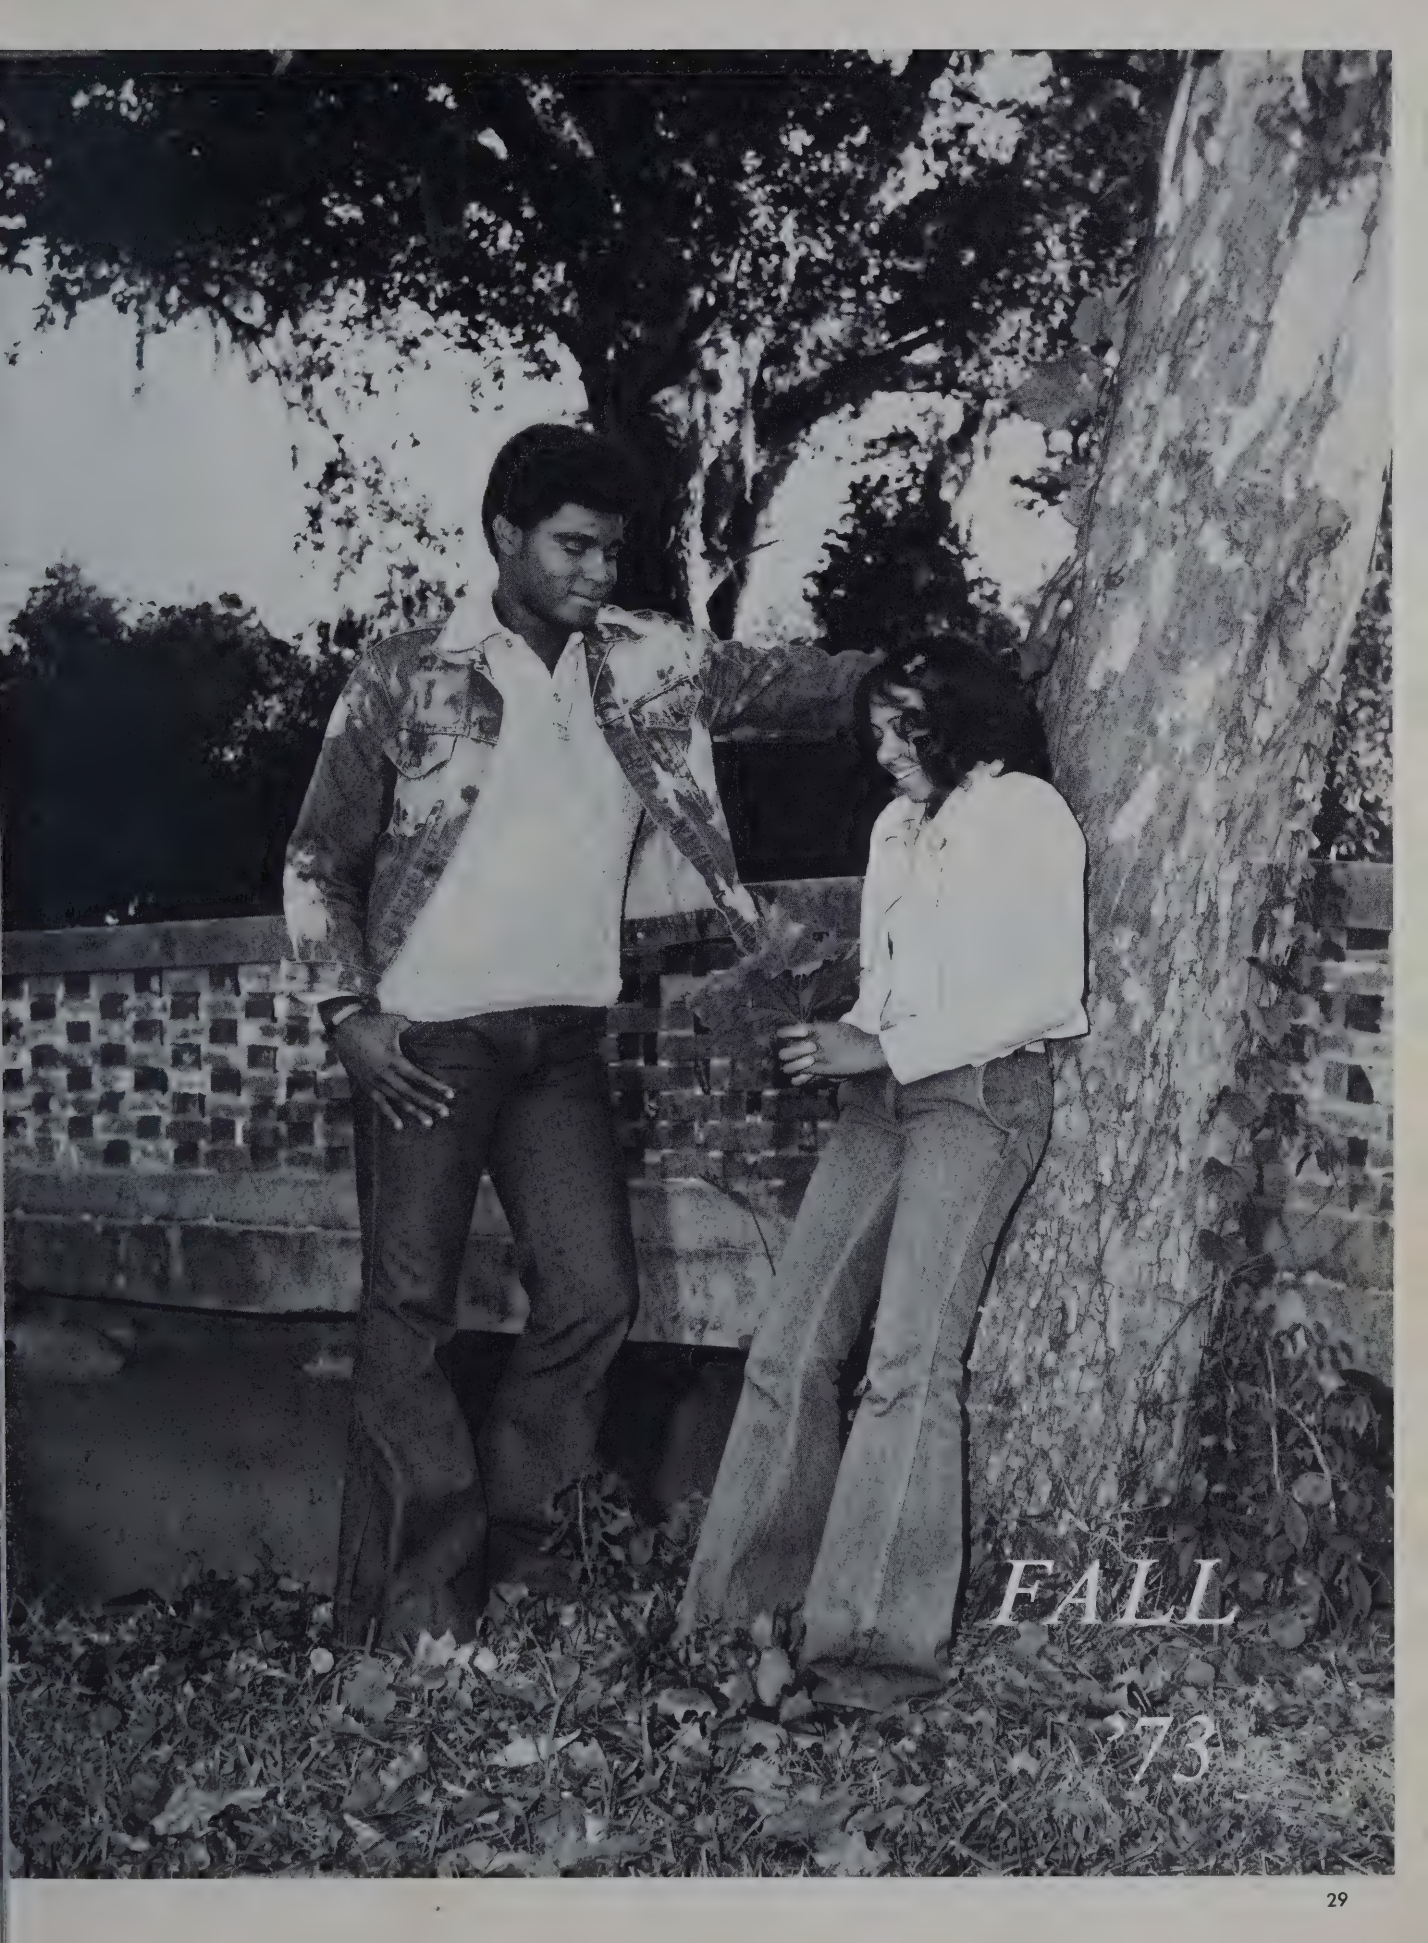

Summer Ends, School Begins!

The "Lazy, Hazy Days of Summer" gradually give way to frantic last minute preparations, as August 24 brings the beginning of school. We rush to get in some last minute tennis, sailing, or whatever. Reluctantly, we "load up" on paper, pencils, rulers, and notebooks. Finally, it is here, and we begin yet another year at Bay High.

FALL

'73

Fall Brings New School Year . . .

Registration . . . Football practice
. . . Pep rallies . . . Changing schedules . . . Getting lockers . . . Friday nights . . .

How suddenly the easy-going days of summer seem to disappear, yielding to the frenzied activities that are Fall! No more staying out late, or sleeping late. You trade in your summer job for books. Like it or not, school has begun!

1974 School Board

The year of 1973-74 is one I shall long remember with pride and admiration, not for anything this administration may have accomplished, but rather for what our students, faculty, and parents have achieved working together toward our common purpose.

1973-74 has NOT been a year of constructing buildings, adding facilities, and equipment. It has been a year of educational achievement, athletic success, and student accomplishments. This year has been a year of dedicated teamwork with everyone working together for the betterment of our homes, our schools, and our community.

You have made a contribution for which you will be highly praised and long remembered. I salute you!

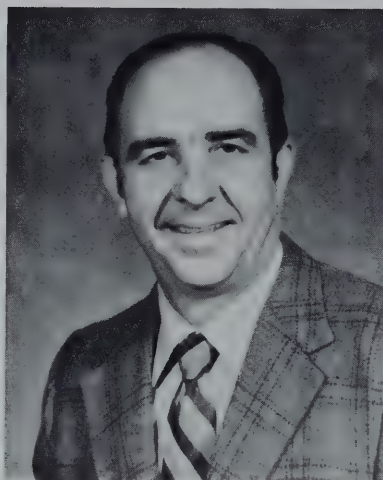

Superintendent of Schools
Mr. J. D. McCulloch

The 1974 School Board is as follows: Mrs. J. Gex, Mr. R. Hamilton, Mr. T. Kidd, Mr. W. Breland, Mr. E. Hazeur, Mr. J. McCullough, Mr. S. Farve.

Central Office

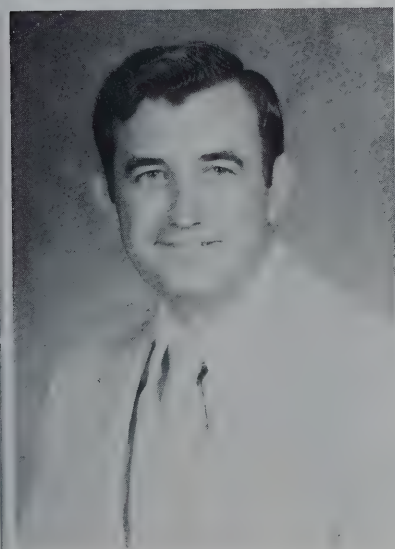

The central office staff is located in the administration wing of Bay Senior High. The staff consists of Mr. J. D. McCulloch, Superintendent; Mr. Donald Caldwell, Assistant Superintendent; Mrs. Crystel Shaeffer, secretary to the superintendent; and Mrs. Mary Garriga. NOT PICTURED: Mrs. Pat Pitalo, secretary to Mr. Caldwell and Mrs. Bonita Cabell, Assistant Bookkeeper.

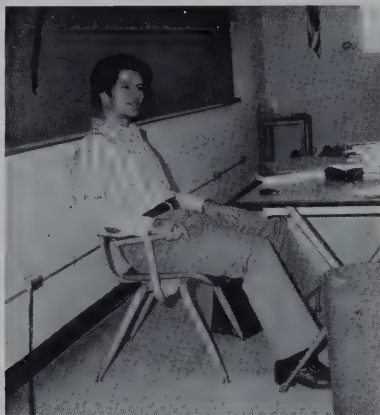

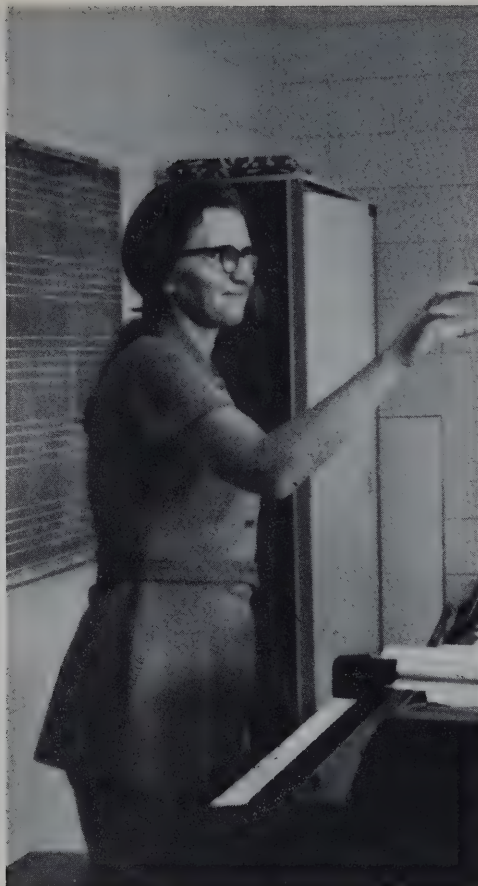

Mr. Magee and Staff

Keep Bay High Moving!

As principal, Mr. Robert Magee must cope with everything from haircuts to curriculum changes. He is ably assisted by Mr. Frank Ladner. Secretaries are Mrs. Mary Lagarde and Mrs. Elsie Benigno.

FACULTY BLENDS EXPERIENCE AND ENTHUSIASM

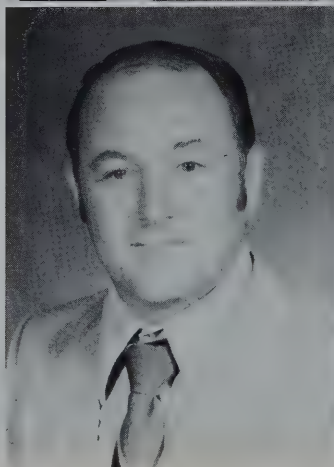

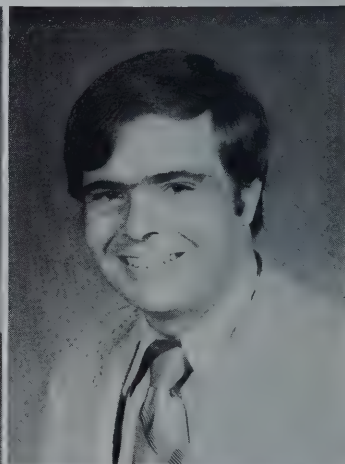

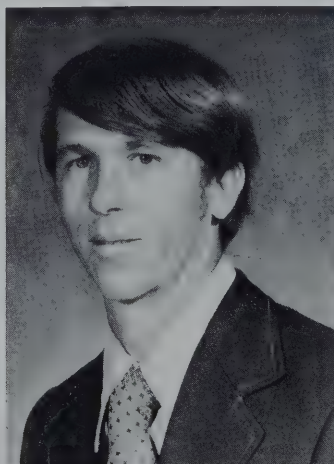

As the school year got under way, Bay High students learned they could benefit from the experience of some teachers and the enthusiasm of others. This rare combination created a natural atmosphere for learning.

The Tiger Staff wishes especially to salute Coach J. E. Loiacano and his staff for another winning season (8-2); Coach Willie Bradley, named GCC Coach of the Year; and Mrs. Venda Mae Ladner, MEC Star Teacher.

Food and Maintenance Workers Are Appreciated

Remember those great hot meals whipped up by the lunch-room ladies? Or the days you got to sit out of gym because they were working on the lights? And the times that Mr. Scafidi helped you videotape some shows? And don't forget our janitors, who work so hard to keep our school clean. These people deserve a lot of thanks. Let's hear it - YAY!!!

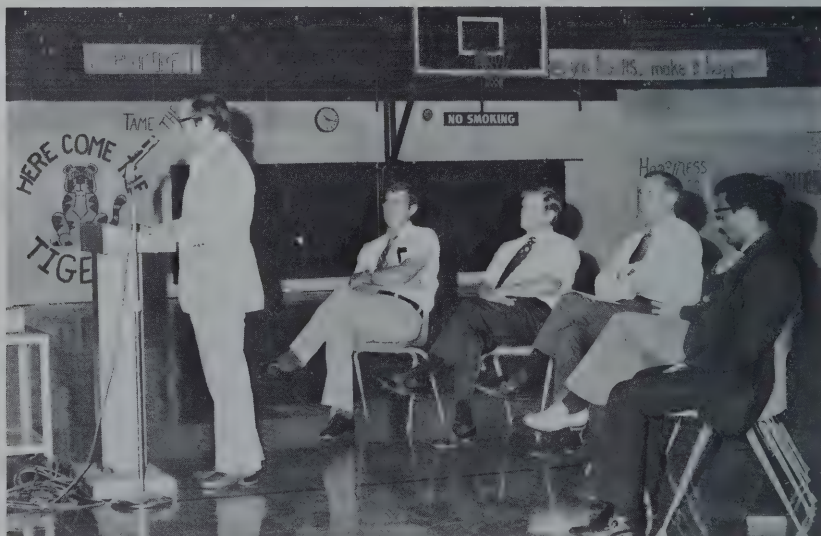

1 - 2 - 3 - 4
 72 - 73 - 74

On Sept. 7, this year you may have noticed a lot of excited seniors running around flashing their hands in your face. This was, of course, because they had finally received their senior rings.

They received them at the traditional ring ceremony in the gym. The guest speakers were Rev. E. L. Stuart, Rev. Alvin Dixon, SVD, Jack Ainsworth. Mr. J. D. McCulloch also addressed the student body. Then finally, Mr. Magee began calling out names, and Mr. Ladner handed out the rings.

FHA Shows 'em What It's All About

The F.H.A.'s goal is to help youth assume their roles in society through home economics education in areas of personal growth, family life, vocational preparation, and community involvement. The F.H.A. is working alongside the Elderly Citizen's Society and has made Christmas gifts for the elderly members of the community. In the second semester, the F.H.A. will work with preschool children.

Garden Club Leads the Way to a Better World

The Tiger Lily Club is sponsored by the Bay St. Louis and Waveland Garden Club. This club holds various activities during the year. It puts on a Christmas show, enters the Bay St. Louis and Waveland Spring Flower Show, and plants a tree on Arbor Day Celebration. Throughout the year the Garden Club tries to maintain a standard of excellence by encouraging pride in the appearance of the community and by sending gardening supplies to other countries. At the end of the year, the Garden Club competes in State Competition to see which high school has done the best work.

Art Club Attracts Bay High's Talented Students

Students with a talent for art find an outlet in Bay High's Art Club. Miss Joyce Warner keeps her students busy seeking ways to express their unique ability. Room 25 is adorned with paper maché creations, water paintings, and charcoal sketches. Tomorrow's Rembrandt may well be lurking somewhere in the Bay High Art Club!

Homecoming Takes on New Aspect

This year's homecoming activities took on a different aspect than former years. First of all, float-building committees were organized, plans drawn up, and materials collected. The parade vehicles were worked on during the entire week.

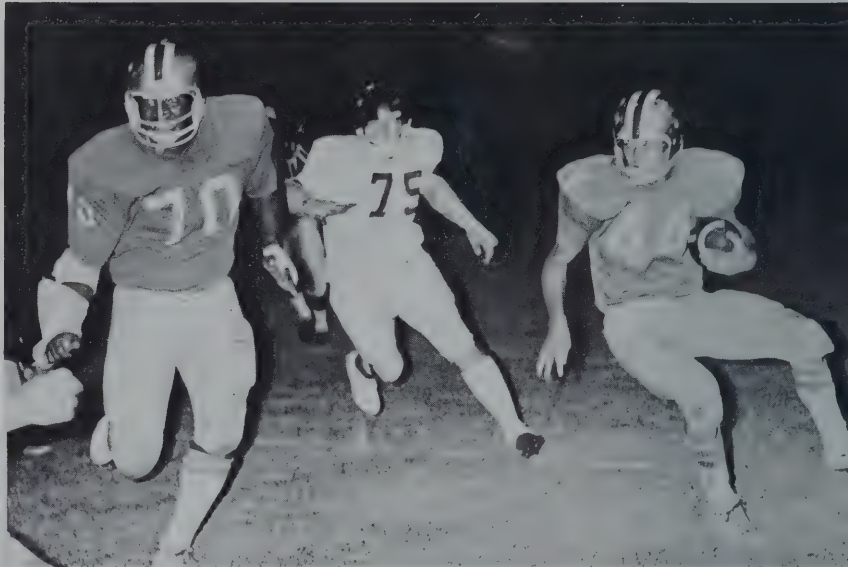

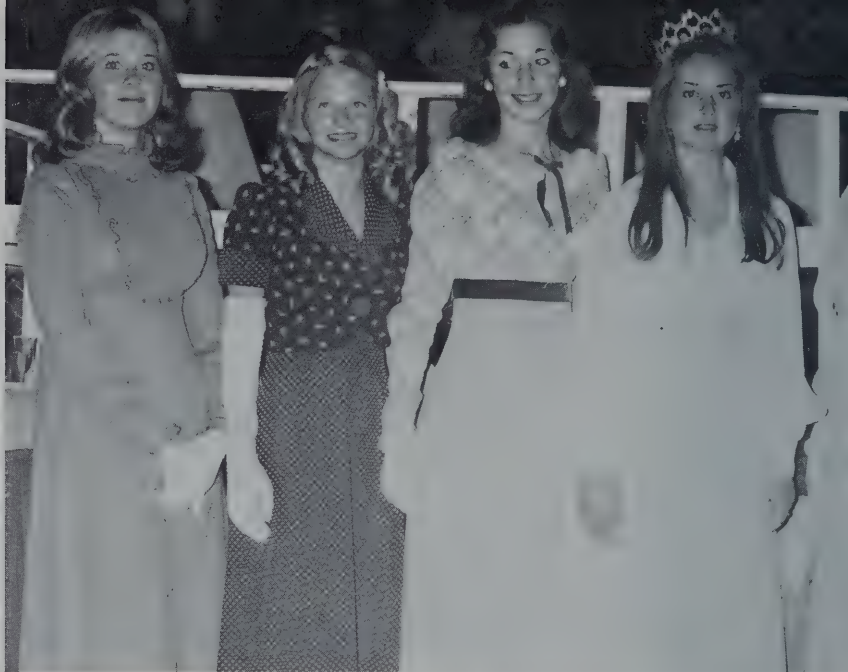

Homecoming week was characterized by various events. First was "crazy socks" day marked by numerous styles and colors of socks. Next was "fifties" day, in which many students participated fully. The third event was "Be nice to football players' day." On this day, all football players were honored. Homecoming day finally arrived. Spirit was abundant as students prepared for the big night.

1973 Homecoming

This year's homecoming court were as follows: Bonnie Binegar, soph. md.; Sandra Levens, jr. md.; Tricia Robinson, sr. md.; Leigh Anne Russo, queen; Kim Coles, sr. md.; Francis Spotorno, jr. md.; and Terri Lagasse, soph. md.

Bonnie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Binegar.

Sandra is the daughter of Dr. J. B. Levens and Mrs. Irma L. Levens.

Homecoming day was filled with excitement. The students were dismissed after lunch to attend the parade they had long awaited. Everyone waited with extreme anticipation to know what the results of the competition showed. The winner of the float competition was the junior float. The winner of the car entry was the DECA car, with sweetheart, Miss Debbie Bermond, seated on the rear seat. Bay High Tiger "Pride" Band led the festivities.

After the parade dismantled, there was a huge pep rally held on the Jr. High campus. Coach Loicano presented the team captains, and also small gifts of appreciation to the cheerleaders.

Tricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Robinson.

Leigh Anne is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter C. Russo.

Kim is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Coles.

Francis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Spotorno.

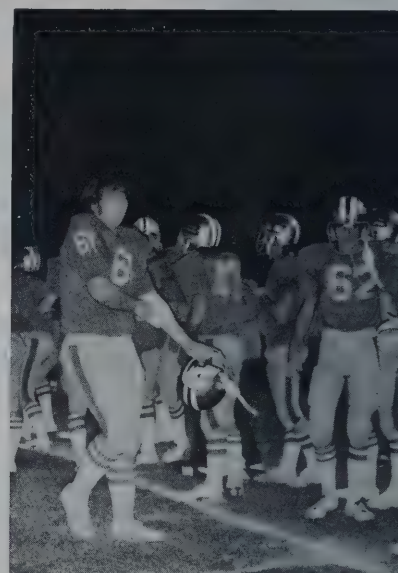

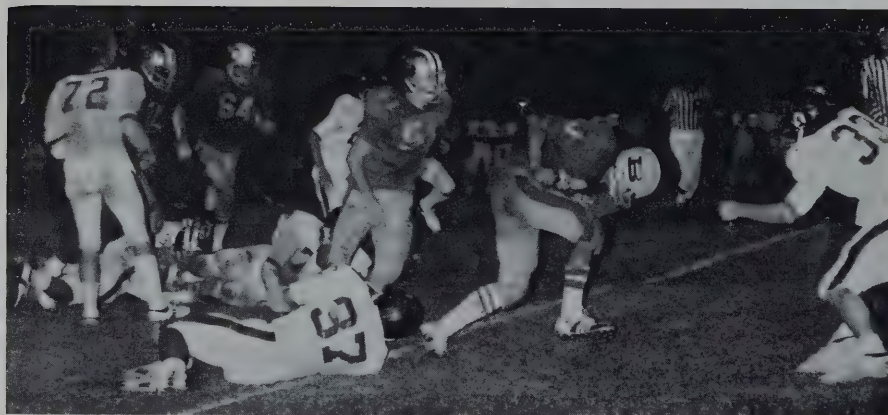

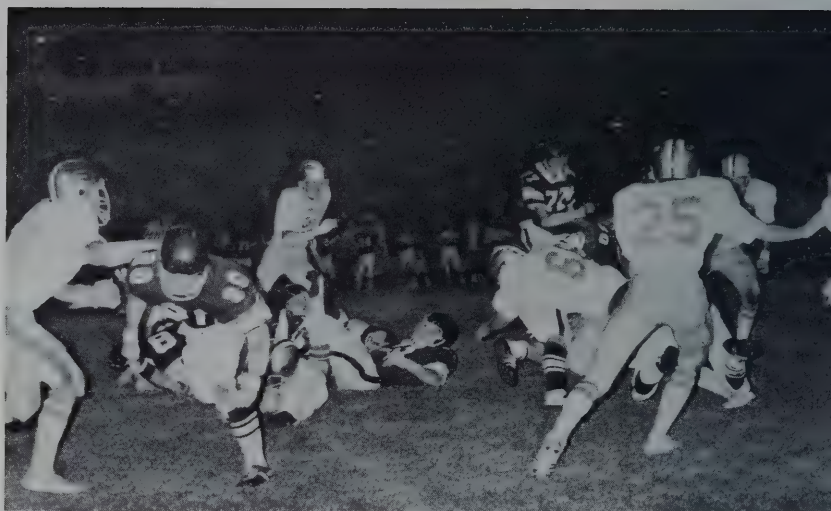

Terri is the daughter of Mr. Paul Lagasse and Mrs. Gerald Gex.

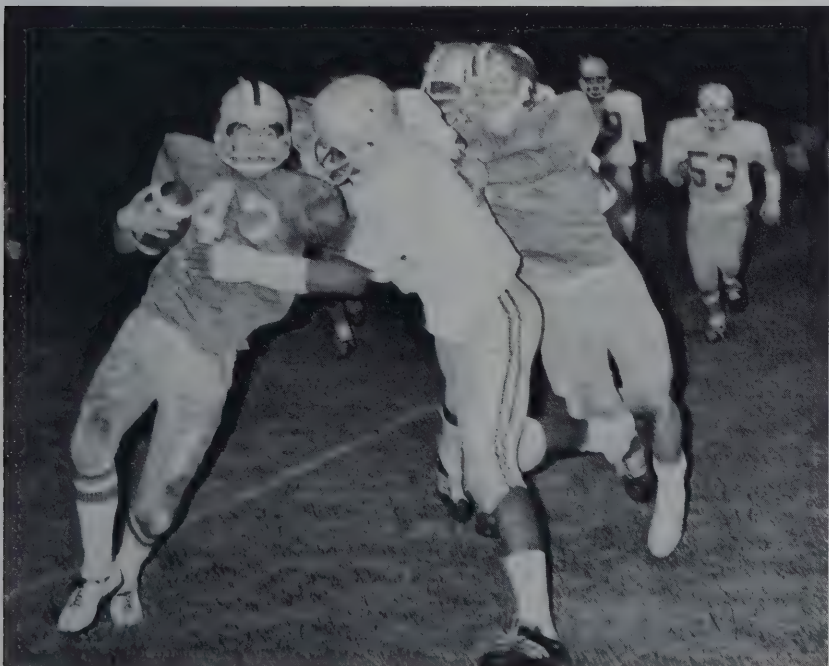

The game began with the Tigers receiving the ball. Although the Rock-a Chaws scored early in the game, their extra point attempt failed. The Tigers scored later in the game and completed the extra point attempt to bring the score to a 7-6 victory for the Tigers.

South Jones	28	Bay High	14

The 1974 "Tiger" staff wishes to dedicate the football section to Coach J. E. Loicano for 8 years of valuable service in coaching the Bay High Tiger Football Team.

The 1973 Tigers roared through the season with an 8-2 record. For the first game of the season, they met the Stone Tomcats at Tiger Stadium for a 6-0 win; it was the first win over Stone in three years. Next, the Pass Christian Pirates fell to the Tigers in a mud-spattered 20-0 conquest. After a two weeks rest, due to an open date, the Tigers were fresh and ready for the Hancock Hawks, whom they defeated 28-7.

1. The defense stops a scoring attempt made by Long Beach.
2. The defense sets up to stop a play by Harrison Central.
3. The offense gains yards for the Tigers.

The Harrison Central Red Rebels came to town, fired up for an upset, but such was not to be. Our Tigers emerged with a 14-6 victory. The stage was set for the game of the year - the undefeated Bearcats. With the conference crown on the line and celebrating Homecoming, the Bearcats hung on for a 14-7 win in double-overtime. Then home again, for the 1973 Homecoming game against St. Stanislaus, the Tiger's arch rivals . . .

. . . It was a close game, but in keeping with a three year tradition, Bay High defeated the Rock-a-Chaws 7-6. The Tigers next met Picayune's Maroon Tide for a 28-7 wipe-out. Home for the third week in a row, the Tigers then trounced Notre Dame of Biloxi by a score of 38-8. For the last game of the season, the Tigers traveled to Ocean Springs to the Greyhounds, who were celebrating their Homecoming. The Tigers upset the Greyhounds by defeating them 28-13. Bay High was selected to play in the Pickle Bowl in Wiggins against the South Jones Warriors; the Warriors defeated the Tigers 21-14.

Pride Marches on . . .

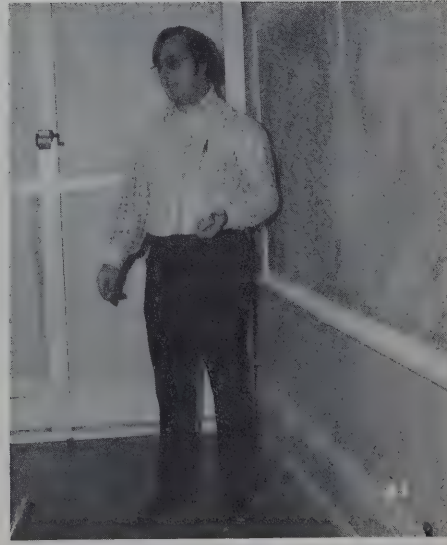

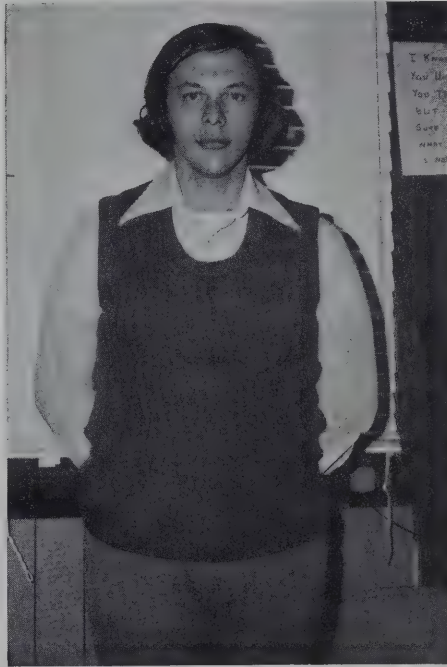

The "Tiger Pride" works long and hard hours to improve their performance. Last year all their hard work payed off. At the State Band Contest the "Tiger Pride" received overall Superior ratings. It received Superior in Concert and Marching and Excellent in Sightreading. This was the first time in twenty-seven years that these ratings were earned by Bay High Band. It was the first time in the history of the school that Superiors were earned in both Concert and Marching. The "Tiger Pride" drum major, Kim Sumrall, also received a Superior rating.

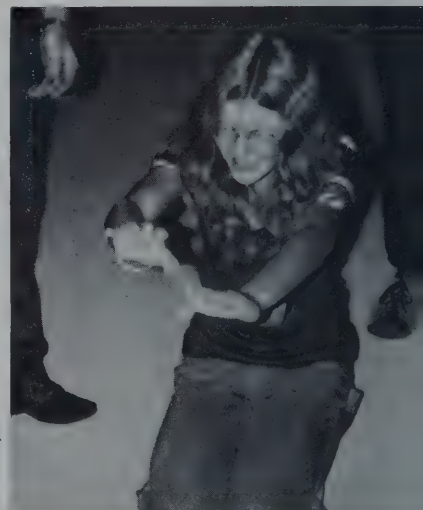

Tiger Pride

Seniors Welcome Sophs

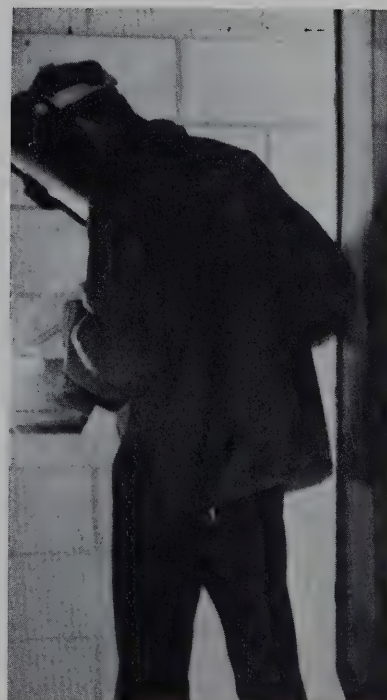

This year's Seniors welcomed the Sophomores in a much different manner than in former years. The Seniors were not shy in showing their superiority to the awed Sophs. Although many Sophomores were anxious for the day to end, it seemed that a good time was had by all.

Anyone visiting Bay High on this day would have been sure our Sophomore class had gone crazy. They would have seen boys dressed as girls, girls with faces strangely made up, Sophs with clothes on backwards or inside out, shoes on the wrong feet, and Sophs crawling on hands and knees, hopping one one foot, and carrying books to please their Seniors. To escape appearing before the entire school at the end of the day, each Sophomore was required to fill out a card that was given to him at the beginning of the day with ten signatures and stars. To get a star, the Sophomore had to perform whatever "duty" the Senior imposed upon him. Such duties were carrying books, bowing to the Seniors, wearing clothes backwards, roaming through the halls repeating such immortal phrases as "Seniors are great," "Seniors are superior." "We LOVE our Seniors" was popular that day also. The day ended with many Sophs saying "just wait till we're Seniors."

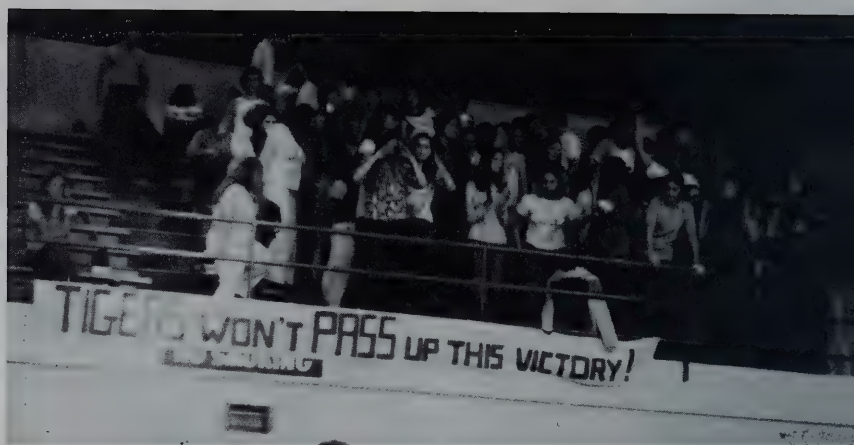

Vo-Tech Adds New Dimensions to Bay High

The $800,000 plus Vo-Tech complex situated at Stennis Field allows junior and senior boys from Bay High to take advantage of a new learning experience. The primary purpose of the Vocational and Technical Education Center is to teach junior and senior boys a trade that will be useful to them upon graduation from high school, to train adults, and to offer start-up training for new and expanding industries in this area.

Vo-Tech is a two year program which presently includes courses in auto mechanics, building trades, industrial electricity, metal trades and welding. In addition, a one year course in practical nursing is offered.

WINTER
'73-'74

Coach Necaise Brings New Look to Boys' Basketball

Coach Mike Necaisa returned to Bay High faced with the task of rebuilding a team that had lost four of last season's starters. The Tigers were young (three sophomores started) and lacked experience, but the team became known for its hustle and aggressiveness. The winter of 73-74 will be remembered as the beginning of a new era in Tiger Basketball.

Girls' Basketball Highlighted by Hustle and Excitement

Playing the most rugged schedule of any team in District 8-A, the Tigerettes gave a good account of themselves. The Bay High Tigerettes have always been characterized by hustle and determination, and this year's squad was no exception. Under the direction of Coach Willie Bradley, named Gulf Coast Conference Coach of the Year, and assistant Coach Miss Florence Delong, the Bay High girls earned the respect of friends and foes alike.

Juniors Win First Place

"The Senior float is the best!" "Oh no, the Junior float is the greatest!" "Well, I don't know about you all, but I think the Sophomore float will win." "Really now, the Junior float looks the best; it will win."

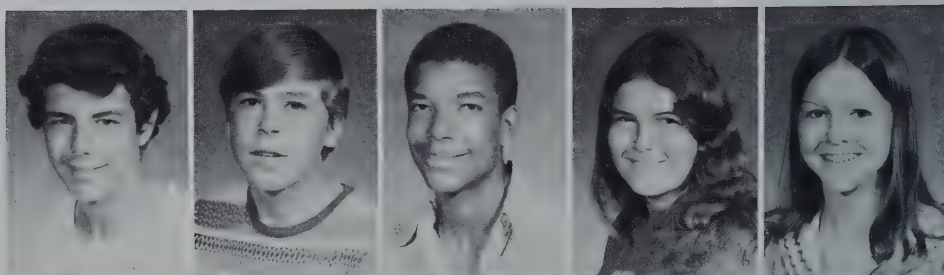

Such were the words during the day before the homecoming parade. Appearance prevailed and the Junior float won. All the floats looked great, but the Junior float had that combination of color and design needed to claim superiority.

Sophomores

Sophomore initiation day was a day for restrained Senior cruelty and a chance for Sophomores to practice the very essence of good-naturedness. The Seniors had a hilarious time viewing the dastardly deeds they made the Sophomores do, and the Sophomores had fun being clowns for a day.

Winter Months Draw to a Close

Thus the winter months move toward a conclusion. In January came the Bay High Tournament and College Night. In February Yearbook members work frantically to meet their final deadline; off-season football practice begins; the tennis and baseball teams shiver through pre-season practice while basketball comes to an end. The routine of school goes on, library assignments, band practice, homework - will Spring never come?

Senior Thoughts

It doesn't matter who you love, or how you love, but that you love.
Maybe you can't buy happiness, but these days you can certainly charge it.
The way to love anything is to realize that it might be lost.
Live your own life, for you will die your own death.
Do not compare yourself with others; for always there will be greater and less.
Be free and have pride!

If it were done when 'tis done, then 'twere well it were done quickly.

When one loves, one doubts, even what one most believes.

The love that lasts the longest is the love that is never returned.

It is the better things in life I will not forget; the small and familiar things I will cherish.

What is yours is mine, and all mine is yours.

Let your life be like arithmetic: joys added, sorrows subtracted, friends multiplied and love undivided. Judy Williams

While friends we were, the hot debates that rose 'twixt you and me! Now we are mere associates and never disagree.

John McPherson

The will to win and be as great as you want to be, or even greater!

To live is like to love, all reason is against it, and all healthy instinct for it.

I'm your friend; You're my friend; I hate none and dislike few. I love her; she loves me. You're great; she is greater; I am the greatest.

Eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow you may be drafted.

But He, that hath the steerage of my course, Direct my sail!

I live for those I love; and for those who know me true.

As you slide down the banister of life may the splinters never point your way.

The love that is in your heart was not put there to stay; For love is not love until you give it away. Jude
Blaize

I was cut out to be an angel, but somebody stole the pattern.

Treasure happiness when it comes your way - Only a fool will turn it away.

Sometimes I wonder if I'm ever gonna make it home again. But I'm on the road to find out.

There is no substitute for conscience, unless it's living in a small town.

Never lie about the truth; But never tell the truth about a lie.

There never seems to be enough time to do the things you want to do once you have found time. Kathy Perniciano

There is the silence when you cannot explain your life, though you be misunderstood for it. Ruth Largay

For every social wrong there must be a remedy. But the remedy can be nothing less than the abolition of the wrong. Frank Langenbacker

The man who seeks one thing in life, and but one may hope to achieve it before life be done. Sam Piazza

Drunkenness is nothing else but a voluntary madness. Audie Murphy

It matters not how long we live, but how. Ronald Magee

Nothing makes them the good old days so much as a good old imagination.

Lynette Prevou

Remember the past, plan for the future, but live for today! Robert Duffie

Maturity begins when we are content with knowing we are right without having the necessity of proving someone else wrong. Leslie Hasney

The chains of love are never so binding as when the links are made of gold. Brenda Ferrell

A friend is someone who loves you. Jeanne Forstall

The beginning of love is bad and the end is worse. Nanette Mutter

Out of a world of laughter suddenly I'm sad. How can I lose love I have not yet found? Charmaine Ruhr

Memory is a fragile thing, A bee's honey and its sting. Debbie Bermond

Peace cannot be kept by force, but only by understanding. Ed Turnipseed

Roses are red, violets are blue, for twelve years I've dreamed, now it's come true. Donna White Graduation comes, High School ends, Happy memories of many friends.

Love understands love; it needs no talk.

If you can't be with the one you love, Honey, love the one you're with!

When the rules of the game prove unsuitable for victory, then gentlemen, change the rules!

Do lovely things, not dream them, all day long; and so make Life and Death, and that Forever, One grand sweet song.

We can never know about the days to come. But we think about them anyway.

We live by encouragement and die without it - slowly, sadly, and angrily.

These days I sit on corner stones.

There are two times when you can never tell what is going to happen. One is when a man takes his first drink; and the other is when a woman takes her latest.

We may never pass this way again.

Save me a place, surround me with friendly faces.

Yesterday is experience. Tomorrow is hope. Today is getting from one to another as best we can, using and needing both.

Very little is needed to make a happy life. It is all within yourself, in your way of thinking.

. . . the bright day is done, and we are for the dark.

Only put off tomorrow what you are willing to die having left undone.

I am not in this world to live up to your expectations and you are not in this world to live up to mine. You are you and I am I.

We who have been made holy by Jesus, now have the same Father He has. That is why Jesus is not ashamed to call us his brothers.

Life is no brief candle to me, it is a sort of splendid torch which I have got hold of for the moment.

l'ai vécie. I have survived.

Every individual has a place to fill in the world and it is important, in some respects, whether he chooses to be so or not.

A friend is a present you give yourself.

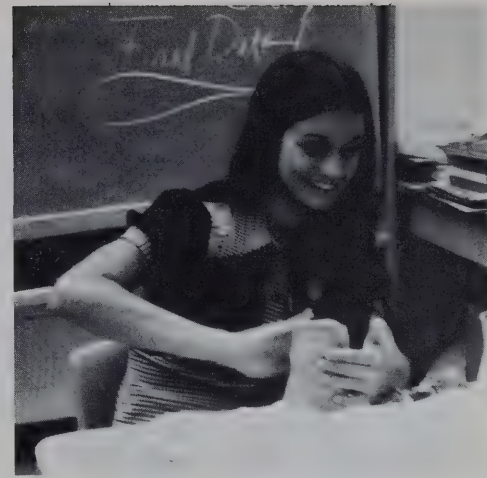

If we can make it together it's beautiful, if not, it can't be helped.

The hardest habit of all to break is the habit of happiness.

Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow; Don't walk behind me, I may not lead; Just walk beside me and be my friend.

looking forward into the past or backward into the future i walk along the highest hills and i laugh about it all the way

We have no more right to consume happiness without producing it than to consume wealth without producing it. Charlotte Morris

An apple is an excellent thing until you have tried a peach. Tom Adams

It is useless to try to hold a person to anything he says while he's madly in love, drunk, or running for office. Tommy Serio

Be not afraid of life. Believe that life is worth living, and your belief will help create the fact. Brenda Carver

As we grow older, we flatter ourselves we are leaving our vices, when it is our vices that are leaving us. Lynne Carver

I have not been idle; I have not let grass grow under my feet. Margie Ladner

Love means never having to say you're sorry. Elaine Chagnard

I'm so glad we had this time together, Just to have a laugh or sing a song. Catha Langley

Man has his will - but woman has her way. Moli McDonald

The goal in marriage is not to think alike, but to think together.

There is no remedy for love but to love more. Debbie Burton

I shall discover; I shall know - The reasons for me - and where I go - Donna Parker

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed.

It seems as if all great men are dying. I feel ill.

Nothing is better for thee than me.

The love of liberty is the love of others; the love of power is the love of ourselves. Love at its best is giving what you need to get. Kim Coles

Take things as they come. But try to make things come as you would like to take them. Wade Koenenn

To learn something new, take the path you took yesterday. Bennie Saucier

Happy is he who has been able to learn the causes of things.

See behind the insults. Know that it is hard to share myself and you will find a friend. Paula Ladner

Confidence is conqueror of men; victorious both over and in them. Kathy Arnold

Waters are lost, and fires will die, but love alone can fate defy. James Burkes

God is love, and without God there is no love. Hank Fleismann

It's not what you're doing - it's what you get caught doing. Madeline Sellers

Although the hippopotamus doesn't have a stinger on his tail, the wise man would still rather be sat upon by the bee. Cooter Seals

Cathy Barkley

If it were my world, it would be hers also. Ed Porter

Paint the mortal shame of nature with the living hues of art. Gilbert Whavers

In solitude we have our dreams to ourselves; and in company we agree to dream together. Darlene Lott

To accomplish great things, we must not only act but also believe.

There are three things that remain - faith, hope, and love - and the greatest of these is love. Elmer Maki

Man can't live by bread alone. He needs buttering up once in a while. Cheryl Goetz

The End of School

The end of school is near;
 For many it is a happy time.
 But what about the graduate?
 Sure, there is a beginning,
 But also an end.
 Sometimes I fear -
 To be alone, by myself,
 Facing unknown trials.
 Other times I'm glad,
 No one telling me what to do,
 I can go where I want.
 There's a whole world before me!
 Life's a smooth sparkling deep blue pond
 Just waiting to be swam in.
 It's a towering, exhilarating mountain
 To climb to the top.
 It's a flower watched path
 To discover the end.
 I part from my school mates,
 But they are still with me -
 Whatever I do, whatever I try
 They are trying too.
 So off we go in our many directions,
 But I hope we meet again,
 Maybe heaven.
